Silks at Half Price

Whatever silks we have too many of, or too few, shall be sold today at an average of half price—very many of the lots at exactly half price. Large selling space has been arranged on the Fifth Floor—Tenth street side.

There is no need for extended descriptions—you know the sorts of silks we sell. Enough to say that—

- 50s Silks are 25c—twenty styles.
- 30c and 35c Satins are 25c—plain colors.
- 75c to $1.25 Satins are 50c—Liberty satins and satin duchesse included.
- 65c to $1 Cameo-striped Taffetas and Evening Brocades are 50c.
- 60c to 80c Silks are 30c—these show finger marks.

- $1 and $1.50 Silks at 75c—been on show—Peau de Soie and other good silks.
- $1.65 and $1.85 Silks are 1c—French; may be enough of a kind for a waist.
- $2 Silks are 1c.25—Velour Cordis and fancy-striped Taffetas.
- Silk Robes are $10 instead of $30.

We Haven't Enough Silver

Two days' selling has proved one thing—we shall not have half enough of the Table and Toilet Pieces to meet your demands. Friend tells friend of the very unusual selling going on at Wanamaker's, and so it goes.

Half Off, Third Off, the Usual Prices

And much of the stock is of solid silver. The plated ware is from a number of the best producers and is equally noteworthy.

Second Day of the Fur Sale

If winter were over, it would be a fine bargain to buy really rich furs at half price, for the summer storage amounts to little. But as a probable fact, winter weather is mostly to come. We are selling and at the rate of yesterday's business (warm as the weather was) the last piece will be quickly taken.

More News of Muslin Underwear

The makers of the stocks would gladly buy all we have at the prices agreed upon; one asks us to take a money consideration and let him off from further deliveries. If you know the stocks as well as they do, the store couldn't hold the throngs who'd come to get a share of the garments. As it is, the lots are disappearing. Is this fair warning? It's meant to be.

Muslin Petticoats with cambric ruffles, 35c. Not more than three to a buyer. Same with these Muslin Drawers at 35c. Deep neck and collar, ruffles, best best reference. And the Night Gowns at 35c. High neck, cluster plaits, insertion; lawn ruffle at neck and sleeves.

Chemises, neck and armholes finished with cotton torchon lace, 18c. Guess we'd better not sell more than three of these to any one buyer. And there is more muslin here. For instance: Black Mohair Waists at $2 instead of $2.75 and $3.75. Colored Waists, solid colors, $3 instead of $4.50 and $6.50. Flannellette Corsets, solid colors, light and pretty, 50c. Eldorado Corsets, $3.50 instead of $5. Flannellette Wrappers, $1 instead of $1.75 and $2. Black Satin Corsets, $2 instead of $3.75. And still fair whoppers at the French Silk Waists and Tea Gowns and Dressing Suits. Some are half price. Second floor, Fourth avenue.
